INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

Arial or Times New Roman (12 pt) is the preferred font and all parts of the manuscripts should be typed double spaced. Manuscripts should be written in English without grammatical errors with readable quality.

Research manuscripts

Research manuscript (RM) should not exceed 5000 words. Manuscript should contain innovative findings. A title page should contain name(s) of the author (s), the affiliation(s) and address (es) of the author (s). Corresponding author should be mentioned with phone numbers and email ids. A concise title of the manuscript should be enclosed. Research manuscript should have crisp and clear abstract (not exceeding 300 words) providing comprehensive information about the manuscript with important keywords (around 5 in Numbers). Apart from the abstract RM should contain following parts.

Introduction: Should clearly introduce the background and objective of the study with extensive literature reviews.

Materials and methods: Methods by which the research investigation was carried out. Manuscripts involving animal models should enclose a statement of ethical committee approval in materials and method section.

Results and discussion: Results should describe the research findings with proper tables, figures and graphs. Discussion should discuss the research findings in the shade of previous research reports.

Conclusion: Conclusive points derived at the end of research findings.

Acknowledgements: Can acknowledge people, funding agencies and funds provided for the research work.

References: The reference should be identified with Author's name followed by the publication year. If there are more than two authors, the first author name is alone mentioned followed by 'et al' and the publication year. If the reference quote two works of the same author, then it should be identified by a lower case letter like 'a' and 'b' after the date to distinguish the works. References should be delivered with upmost accuracy by the authors. References should be listed in alphabetical order.
